Re: MUR 4389

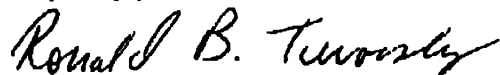

Dear Mr. Bull:

I am counsel for James Prince ("Mr. Prince") and the Prince for Congress Committee (the "Committee"). On behalf of the Committee and Mr. Prince, this is to request an extension of time to provide factual or legal materials that are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter, in response to the Factual and Legal Analysis submitted to us with a letter dated June 27, 1997. These materials currently are due on July 22, 1997, as confirmed during my telephone conversation with you on July 14, 1997. It is requested that the due date be extended from July 22 to August 11, 1997.

Good cause exists for such an extension. Since Mr. Prince was unsuccessful in his campaign, and individuals working for the campaign are no longer on staff, it has been difficult to contact individuals with respect to the response. Additional time is needed to fully respond. Moreover, on July 18, 1997, I will leave the office to get married and to go on a honeymoon. I will not be back in the office until July 29. The current due date falls during that period and my absence will cut deeply into the time to respond. It is estimated that the requested additional time will provide a sufficient period to prepare a thorough response. Without that additional time, however, it may not be possible to provide the factual or legal materials.

Please let me know immediately whether this extension has been granted. Thank you for your cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Ronald B. Turovsky
